

Friends of Peace!

We were so glad to see you! It was a blessing to be able to proclaim God's Word among you. I truly pray you fix our eyes on God's day by day renewal where He comes side by side you and I. It was also a blessing to catch up with those who hung out during the Bible Class hour! Hannah, Judah, and I were blessed to be able to see family and friends while home. Hannah and Judah were able to hang out an extra week with her parents while I started Hebrew.

About Hebrew... It's been fine. I come to our first class session each day (we have 2 – one in the morning and another after the Noon Hour) ready and confident. I usually leave our afternoon session with a sizzling sensation in my brain... Thankfully my professor, Rev. Dr. Phil Penhallegon, has done a nice job of walking us through the language. We move quickly in class, but "Prof.P" has explained the language in clear and concise ways. After un-frying my brain with a walk, basketball, or playing with Judah (and some days I need all three...), I hunker down for the night and work through what we learned, which helps me feel confident the next morning.

I mentioned this during the Bible Class hour when we were home, but Hannah and I are moving on campus. Our first apartment in STL – really the property management – wasn't meeting our needs. We're moving to the Seminary's Married Housing – "The Woods." If you would like our new address, please talk to the Main Office at Peace or reach out to Hannah or me.

We are so thankful for our friends at Peace! Thank you for your prayers and support. If you are interested in helping this upcoming Fall: 1) Pray! The 2nd Year is usually "the hardest" as seminarians do more at their Field Work Churches, classes are a little "harder," and life continues to go on. 2) Consider purchasing a book I need for class. You can find the book list here:

https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/3MT5JARD27N9M?ref=wl_share . I also have a QR Code with this letter. The Blue Commentaries (at the bottom of the list) are NOT for class – just on the list for me to remember to buy them some day. If you have questions about the books, seminary, or life, don't hesitate to reach out!

Thank you again for your support and prayers! We love and miss you!
